"We can move the world, we can touch the sky. We can climb the highest mountains, spread our wings and fly. We can learn to be what it is we're meant to be. We can learn to grab our dreams and look for all possibilities. We can move the world." -Joe Crone

This class' graduation year is 2010, so it makes sense that the theme for the yearbook is A Perfect Ten. The past year has been filled with numerous top ten moments which grace the pages of the yearbook. Some of the top moments include the Boys' Hockey team making it all the way to the Division 2 State Championship game and the seniors beating the juniors 35-0 in the Powder Puff football game.

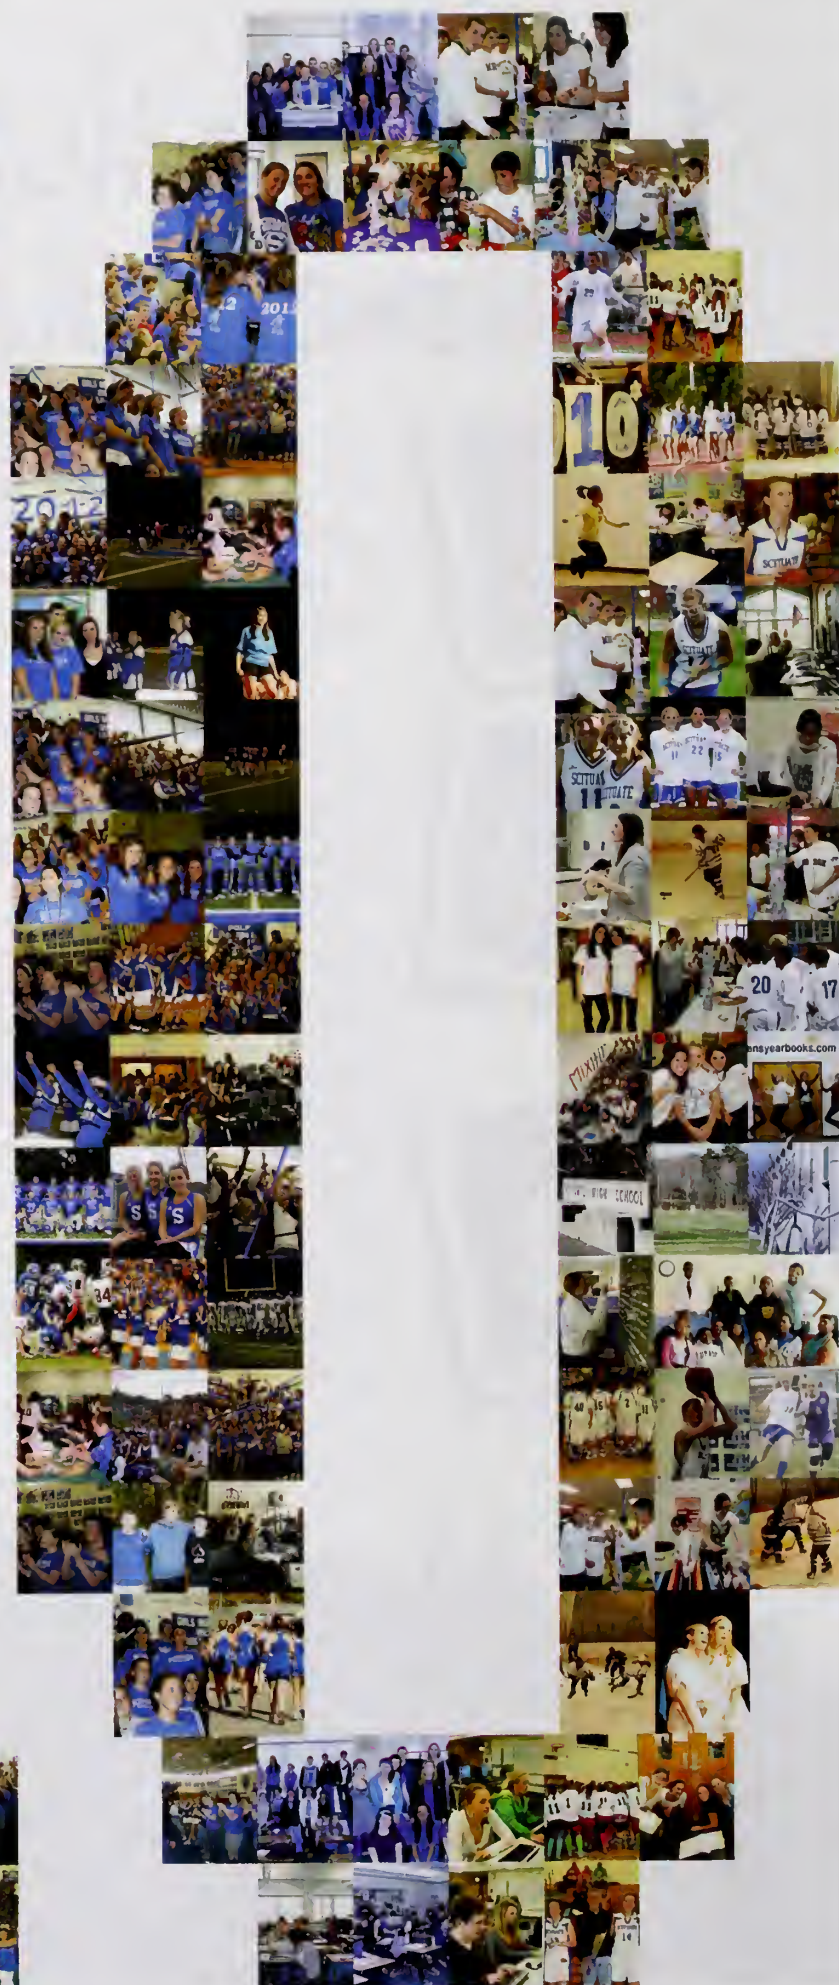

Asides from these exciting moments, there have been countless other memories. Many of the sports teams for the 2009-2010 school years went far in their seasons, and some even made it to tournament. Students and faculty created new clubs and activities, such as Freshmen Kick Off Mentors and the ones that have existed for years gained new members. ADL put together another successful Mix It Up Day, while the Drama Club put on a wonderful performance in A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum. The pep rallies were filled with new activities including the dance-off and a doughnut-eating contest. The seniors had a great time at the Dinner Dance and the juniors enjoyed dancing the night away at Prom. The chorus and band took a trip to Disney, Model UN went to a conference in New York City, journalism students traveled to D.C. and a small group of students went on a service trip to Peru.

Whatever it was that each student was doing, it is clear that this year was filled with many top moments!

Pep Rally

Students Show Their Spirit!!!

Fun activities, sports teams' accomplishments, lots of school spirit: the Pep Rallies are definitely exciting times. As the blue and white school colors fill up the large gym at the end of every season, all SHS students look forward to seeing new activities as well as old favorites. Class-themed decorations fill up all sections of the bleachers, showing lots of school spirit. At the end of every Pep Rally it is clear that the planning and hard work that Student Council puts into each one of these events has really paid off.

Top Ten Moments

1. Senior Matt Mitchell running after sophomore Zack Brazao for the Spirit Boogie Board during the Spring Pep Rally

2. When Joey forgot to recognize the Boys' and Girls' Hockey Teams during the January Pep Rally

Scituate Idol!

It was Scituate High School's first year for Scituate Idol, a singing competition mimicking the hit show American Idol. This SHS and Gates students got a chance to shine and show their singing abilities. All twelve contestants put forth a great performance, leaving the judges, Mr. Beattie, Ms. Fanelli, and Ms. Shanley, with a very difficult decision to make. After a tough deliberation, junior Kaylan Gibbons took home the prize singing "I Turn to You" by Christina Aguilera. The competition proved to be a success for its first year and we hope to see it return next year!

The judges, Ms. Fanelli, Ms. Shanley, and Mr. Beattie, give praise and helpful critiques after the contestants perform.

Junior Kaylan Gibbons, the Scituate Idol winner, proves she has a powerful voice that could give stars a run for their money.

Freshman Olivia Branton sings "Hurt" by the legendary Christina Aguilera.

POWDER PUFF '09

Top Ten Moments of Powder Puff

1. First four minutes were only tackle
2. Taryn's tackle
3. Score board 35-0; Seniors!
4. The play "Ghergs Right"
5. Chinz's leap to score
6. Stewy's outfit
7. Circle huddles
8. The "sideline clothesline"
9. Half time rave!
10. T-shirts ten minutes before the game

Brian Palmer bites his lip while he impresses the audience with his dance moves.

Mr Sailor

Above: A few seniors assist Sam in his Jersey Shore skit by fist-pumping.
Below: Joe Sienkiewicz and Zach Brazao sit together while they entertain the audience.

Sophomore contestant Zach Brazao looks dignified in his thick-rimmed glasses and Star Trek t-shirt.

Mr. Sailor 2009, Joe Mullin, hosts the competition and dances with the contestants.

Junior Will McDonald and senior Melanie Rotty perform "Bad Case of Loving You" together.

Above: Mr. Sailor 2010, Sam Wicks, shows off his moves. Below: Brian Palmer dances with his escort, Colleen Grace, without her knowing.

Top:Ten

1. Brian Palmer as Mrs. Nuzzo
2. Jake Shillue's GTL impression of Ronnie
3. Will McDonald as a manny for the McCarthy twins
4. The randomness of Zach Brazao and Joe Sienkiewicz's skits
5. Joe Mullin's attempt to entertain by telling his life story and playing piano
6. Sam Wick's hilarious Jersey Shore Skit
7. Will as Eliza Thornberry
8. Brian as Bear Grylls
9. The all-contestant dance with former Mr. Salior Joe Mullin
10. Sam winning!

Prom!!

"Oh What A Night"

May 15th
2009

Ms. Bernard checks students in as they arrive at the Westin Waterfont Hotel.

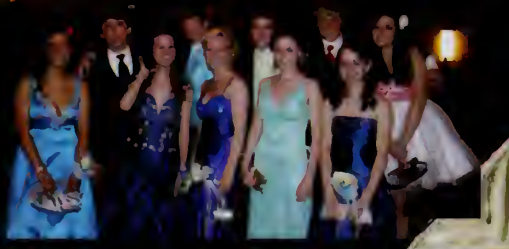

Morgan Billings helps himself to a full plate of food at the Junior Prom.

One of the first buses to arrive, they were able to check out the scene before everyone else.

Adam Larragher and Colby Richardson get ready to get the party started.

Liz Robbins and her date are ready for some dinner and dancing.

Mike Cook, Jordan Connolly, Jess Whitter and Craig Cole gather and await their chance to enter the dining room.

Senior Dinner Dance

Cory Margolis, Sean McQuaid, Tequan Hopkins, and Pat McGowan take a picture together.

Isabel Bernstein, Heather Jenkins, and Rachael Fitzgerald sport the center pieces.

An Event to Remember

The Senior Dinner Dance is definitely a night to remember. It is one of the last events the senior class experiences together as a group. It is filled with dinner, dancing and excitement. The night is less serious and formal than Prom; it's a time to have fun without all the extra stress. As everyone enters, a good sense of class spirit fills the Barker Tavern. The Class of 2010 bonded throughout the whole night and created many memories. While everyone reminisced, the room was full of smiles and laughs. By the end of the night, everyone had a blast.

Carly Becker, Emily Miller, Briana McCabe, and Kendall McLellan are all smiles as the dance begins.

Cory Margolis dances around the room with Principal Nuzzo.

Emily Duggan, Michele Lavanchy, and Sonny Billotte show off their dresses.

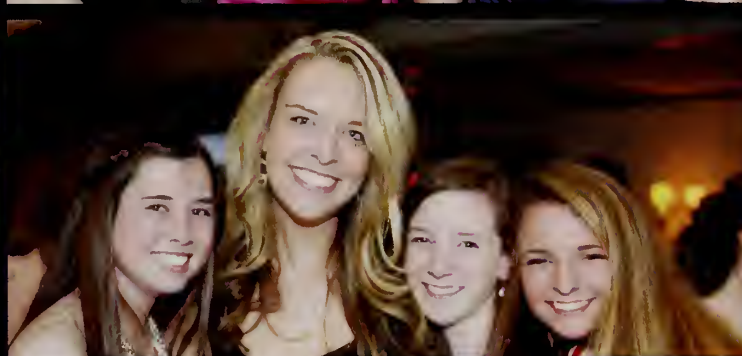

Right: Haley Steele and Amy Magill socialize as they take pictures with friends.

Life's a dance you learn as you go, sometimes you lead, sometimes you follow, don't worry about what you don't know, life's a dance you learn as you go. - John Montgomery

Pat Noenickx, Kelly Jenkins, Zach Goudreau, Heather Jenkins, and Denzel Silva patiently await dinner

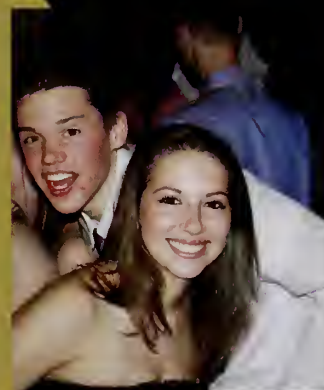

Top: Kathleen Marciano, Laura Krussel, and Lila Debas dance the night away.
Below: Emily Noonan, Kerry Sanson, Liz Whalen and Krissy Reimels pose together before the night's events begin.

Top: Kate O'Connor, Sarah Foster, Annie Fyffe, and Jaime Margolis make memories.

Libby Leet enjoys herself as the dancing never stops.

Megan Ghergurovich and Adam Crowley break it down on the dance floor

Student Council

Right: Student Council members huddle for support before a Pep Rally.

Below: StuCo members participate in the SEMASC Conference held at Plymouth South High School.

Student Council is a dedicated group of students elected to represent their different classes. The Council works with the administration and faculty to try to make the school a better environment for all. The students provide ideas towards important decisions regarding issues in school, planning Pep Rallies, and themes for Spirit Weeks. The Council participates in Semasc Conferences every season with other high schools, each with a different theme and held at different schools.

Below: Mrs. Lemmel chats with a parent on the phone. This was Mrs. Lemmel's first year as SPS METCO Director.

METCO's purpose

METCO's purpose in suburban towns is to bring a different diverse way of learning to kids who would have never experienced a surrounding similar to one in a town rather than in the city.

Kids in the METCO program get to experience a different kind of lifestyle along with the learning style of a suburban school rather than that of a Boston Public School. METCO is also a great program because it trains its members to embrace every kind of race and culture for what it is. METCO in Scituate plays a big role at the high school, each and every METCO student is welcomed with open arms and Scituate becomes a second home for the METCO students to feel comfortable and be themselves.

Junior Mike Gillan gives thanks to his friends in a short speech.

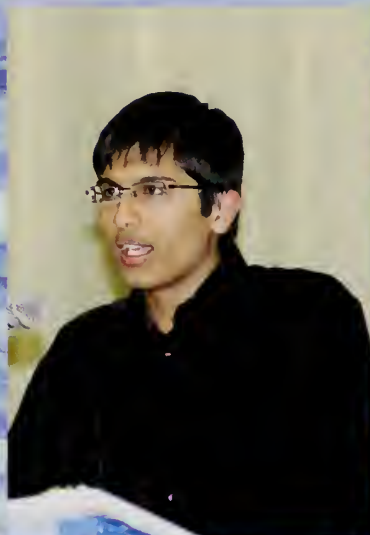

After accepting her certificate from Mrs. Nuzzo Jackie Perfetti thanks her family and classmates for challenging her throughout the school year.

What is National honor society?

National Honor Society is a great program for kids in SHS who are leaders in the community and in the classroom. In this program each person strives to be a role model at the high school by tutoring those who need academic help or just having a positive friend to be around who can steer you in the right direction. Each person in NHS has their own unique qualities that blend together with the school. Their service, scholarship, and leadership play a special role in contributing to the Scituate High School community.

Dhrumil Patel gives thanks to his supportive family teachers and friends.

Ms. Shanley honors the 2009-2010 officers and welcomes the new inductee's.

Bob Norton thanks Mr. Parkins and his mom for their support.

ADL members Josh Sauter, Kate Lyvins, Erin Gerhard, Alina Spangenberg, and Stephanie Robinson. Staff: The cafeteria for Mix It Up day.

What is ADL?

The main goal of ADL is to prevent discrimination and hurtful means of expression towards various groups in our society. ADL is also in charge of coordinating workshops called Allies Not Bystanders, in which upperclassmen instruct freshmen how to be an ally rather than a bystander in various situations. ADL's objective is not to change people's minds but rather to open them.

The ADL crew poses just before after a successful Mix It Up day.

Best Buddies is just one of the great clubs Scituate High offers. In this group it shows you to step out of your comfort zone and shows other lifestyles that people aren't accustomed to. This year Best Buddies was up beat and positive with their new friends. Jamie Ryan, president of the club even says "Best Buddies is a great program and a great way to give back to the community." The club had more buddies than ever and even went on trips like Copley square and Disney World in Florida. This year has been full of activities such as singing, dancing, and karaoke which is the favorite, also a lot of club members love to hang out with their best buds outside of school.

About

The Scituation staff spends the year creating Scituate High School's newspaper. They learn the rules of journalism and how to write articles that interest their readers. They work together to develop ideas and improve their writing skills. Writers, editors, and an advisor, Ms. Gacic, all work hard to keep the newspaper running.

Editor in Chief Krissy Reimels and Arts & Entertainment Editor Joey Mullin revise their work.

Editors Nicole Buckley and Emily Hoffman put on their thinking caps.

Staff members Shane Merrit and Chet Kupchella get their writing process started.

The Shipyard employees always greet their customers with patience and a smile.

Senior Nick Jones shows off the top selling food item the store sells.

Senior Brian Pratt enters the total cost of the customer's items.

Shipyard

The Scituate High School store is a student run business that is supervised by Mr. Maki. Students who work in the school store are first taught the basics on how a business is run in the Marketing classroom, then they begin working at the school store. Senior, Jackie Lane says, "Working in the school store has shown me what it is like to work in a small business." The school store is opened every morning before announcements and every afternoon when the school day ends. The store is always filled with SHS students whether they are looking for a quick snack, school supplies, or SHS apparel.

Members of The Scituation staff took a trip to Washington D.C. in November 2009 to attend the JEA/NSPA journalism conference which consisted of 6,500 students from around the country. All students participated in the convention for their schools yearbooks, newspapers and literary magazines. During the day students took various journalism and writing classes taught by actual professionals. After classes, the group spent lots of time touring D.C., eating out, and visiting museums. Overall, the D.C. trip was a big success and The Scituation staff had a very memorable time.

The group poses with some of the kids they met while volunteering at a local high school.

A group of ten, eight students and two teachers, traveled to Peru for service over April vacation. They worked on various odd jobs around Peru's capitol city, Lima. Every day was something different: they helped clean up a park, they painted over graffiti on a church, they learned about the service work of local organizations who attempted to aid families faced with extreme poverty, made guest appearances at a local high school, and knocked down the walls of an old church to build ramps for emergency exits during earthquakes. In addition to the work, they also experienced a lot of the Peruvian culture. They saw the poverty stricken barrios, and the wealthy financial districts. Every day was a surprise—from visiting art museums, to touring the Courthouse used during the Spanish Inquisition, to a quick look at the network of catacombs underneath the city. As Adam Crowley said, "The Peru trip was an incredible experience they will never forget."

This year the Scituate Golf team ended their season with 8 wins and 10 losses. The returning starters were juniors Mitch Warren, David Lyons, Kevin Cox, Cameron Rosata, Kristin Harrigan and sophomore Jack O'Donaghue. The three new additional starters sophomore Sharp Jones, freshmen David Sylvester and Tucker Ciessau contributed to the overall season. Although the team had more losses than wins, each and every member played well and collaborated nicely the whole season. A memorable match was against Silver Lake when the Sailors defeated them by one. Along the way, Captains David Podurgiel and Mary Mulcahy displayed great leadership. In the end, Head Coach Chisholm continually encouraged the team with his motto "Don't Quit!"

The football team trampled through the competition, with their record of 8-3. The boys beat some of the toughest teams in the league this season. Senior captains Brendan Perkins and Patrick Johnson help to drive the team to victory. Whether it is screaming on the sidelines to get their teammates motivated or making a great play on the field, they were dedicated to helping the team succeed.

In a heart-wrenching defeat Scituate lost 15-13 against Duxbury in overtime. That game was the deciding factor that knocked the boys out of the playoffs. Even though they will not be in the playoffs this year, they made it farther than any SHS football team has gone in over 25 years.

GIRLS SOCCER

Seniors captains Emily Fougere, Jess Szklut, Nicole Buckley lead the team to a great season.

This Lady Sailors had a great season; winning eleven straight games after losing the first three. Led by senior tri-captains Jess Szklut, Emily Fougere and Nicole Buckley. The team qualified for the MIAA State Tournament for the fourth consecutive year. They also had a dramatic change this year having eight freshmen on the varsity squad. "Our warm-up was a routine we changed mostly due to superstition, after losing our first three games we changed our warm-up and won the next eleven," said Coach Maki. The Lady Sailors had strong contributions from Fougere and Szklut, who were both named to the Patriot League All-Star Team. Szklut was also named to the 2nd Team Eastern Mass All-Star Team, and the Scituate Mariner Athlete of the Month.

The team gathers together with Coach Forde to strategize a play for the last five minutes of the game.

This year the Sailors soccer team made it to the State Tournament for the first time in nearly a decade. This was because of strong team chemistry and not relying on individual skills. There were seventeen upperclassmen on the team. Seven seniors, including captains Max Pettinelli, Ryan Salmon, and Pat Falaro, led the team to a record of 7 wins, 7 losses, and 4 ties. The 2009 team also consisted of one freshmen player and three sophomores who fit in perfectly. The team was fortunate enough to have senior Tom Demers, video tape all the team's games both home and away. By the end of the boy's soccer season coach, Mr. Forde, was very proud of the team's accomplishments. The 2009 season was the greatest it has been in a long time.

This year the Lady Sailors played a great season with seven wins against some of the League's most competitive teams. Norwell, Hingham, Pembroke, and Notre Dame Academy were a few of Scituate's biggest competitors. The team was lead by five outstanding senior captains: Emily Miller, Christina McCourt, Jessica Whittier, Emily Hoffman and Jenny O'Brien. All of the games these field hockey players were played to the girls' top potential and they never failed to keep things exciting and fun. With the help from their coaches and families, the Lady Sailors made Scituate High School proud.

The Girls Varsity Basketball Team had an incredible season, despite being one of the youngest teams in their division, with only two seniors and one junior. They were led by Senior Co-Captains Kerry Sanson and Jackie Lane. The girls finished with an impressive record of 17-5. Along the way they had many accomplishments including winning both the Inn at Scituate Harbor Holiday Tournament, and the Martha's Vineyard Island Invitational Tournament. This season the girls moved up from the last seed in division 3 to being the 5th seed in division 2. In state tournament action the girls won a battle to the end victory over Norwood in the first round. They then traveled to Medfield and unfortunately lost in the Quarter Finals.

Kelly Martin, Megan Otto and Shannon Brady were named Patriot League All-stars. Martin and Otto were also named to the All-Scholastic team. Senior Jackie Lane received the individual Patriot League Sportsmanship Award and Senior Kerry Sanson was named to the Massachusetts South Sectional All-Academic Basketball Team as one of the top student-athletes in the state of Massachusetts. As a team they won the Scituate High School Academic Excellence Award at the Winter Pep Rally.

Sophomore Katie McMahon was a returning player and held the position as goalie for the team.

Scituate Girls' Hockey improved their record over the season to 1-17-1. The team was hungry for a win this season and Coach Donnelly assisted the girls in achieving their first win ever. All players contributed during the winter tournament at Martha's Vineyard where they defeated Peabody 7-3. Junior Alanna Woodford and sophomore Maggie Travers were returning captains and displayed exceptional leadership skills. Returning starters consisted of Woodford, Travers, Brenna Galvin, Rachel Morel, and goalie Katie McMahon. Seniors Meghan Hurley, Emily Miller and Emily Duggan provided leadership for the team. Overall, the girls had a memorable season with the excitement of their first win.

The team huddles together in excitement after making their first goal at State Championship.

After putting up a tough fight at the Garden, the Sailors face the end of their season and congratulate Longmeadow for winning the title as State Champs.

Scituate Boys' Hockey coasted through their season with a lot of success. Head Coach Breen and assistant coaches Kevin Duggan, Erik Steverman, and Jamie Kelly stood as strong supporters for the team. Returning starters were Jamie Murray, Brian Collins, Mike Cook, Cam Rosata, Brian Pratt, and Matt Mitchell. Competition was tough this year due to the fact that the team is in Division III yet half their regular season games were against Division I and II teams. Also, seven games into the season, the team lost senior Brian Pratt to an unexpected surgery. However, he was able to return for the final regular season game and the Sailors finished off the year with a record of 18 wins and only 3 losses. The team walked away from their impressive season as winners of the Patriot League, Big Ham Tournament, Gould Tournament, South Sectional Champs, Eastern Mass Champs, and State Finalists.

The Scituate High School 2009-2010 wrestling team fought their hardest this past season. Their final record was two wins and eighteen losses. This record does not show the amount of effort that they put into their matches. They worked extremely hard during every practice and every match. Their head coach was Mr. Michael Dillon, and the team statistician was Laura Haselman. Coach Dillon said, "The team has a lot of young talent that gains their experience this year and come out stronger next year. I have great expectations for the future of this program". At the banquet many awards were given out. One of them was the Patriot League All-Stars, which was given to Michael Madeira, and Spencer Sliselman. Another prestigious award given was the Ironman Award which means these students did not miss a single practice, which was given to Andrew Churchill, Brian Palmer, Spencer Sliselman, and Mike Neil. The team MVP is Spencer Sliselman. And the Coach's Award was given to Mike Neil. Another award that was given to Mike Neil was the Patriot League Sportsmanship Award.

This year the track team welcomed a group of new freshmen to the team. The veteran runners introduced the new runners to the ways track practice is run. Returning coaches Brett Johnson and Alisha Conway always do an awesome job at keeping practices on task and track meets organized. All runners got a chance to try out which ever event they were curious about. The final record for the boys team was 1-0-4. And the final record for the girls team was 2-0-3. The season was filled with some of the best memories. All the track runners are very grateful that indoor track was saved from being cut out of the budget.

"Wicked Sci-Coh" no more! Returning senior captains Megan Little, John McGuinness and Joey Mullin returned this year knowing they would have more difficulties than last year. Being newly separates from the Cohasset team, the Scituate swimmers held all the responsibility. The swim team managed to do very well even without the Cohasset swimmers though. Scituate students Megan Little, Tess Walter, Katherine Black, and Kate McAteer came in 12th at Division II states. Having lots of help from students, like Maeve Dawley, many of the parents, and the two coaches AJ Vozella and Bill Edwards, the strong SHS swim team made it to the League Championships. Also, Megan Little was nominated as Patriot League All-Star and was nominated to be a part of the CIVC Super All-Star Team. Despite the separation, Scituate rose above many teams in other towns and set the bar for future swimming at SHS. Go Scituate!

Scituate's track team has grown a lot this year. Having only four returning seniors for the girls, Megan Ghergurovich, Emily Fougere, Emily Noonan, and Jess Szklut, and Chet Kupchella, Adam Farragher, Tim Weydt, Pat Noenickx, Max Petinelli, and Sam Wicks as the few returning seniors on the boys' team, the majority of the team consisted of underclassmen. With help from their coach Mrs. McCarthy and assistant coaches Kiely Cuddihy and Kris Scribner, the SHS girls track team managed to finish the season respectably. The meet at Duxbury went well for the girls, with Katelyn Fougere completing the two mile quickly enough to win the whole meet for the girls. Katie Sheehan and Michaela Murray received the All-Star award and Megan Ghergurovich and Meredith Barthold were honorable mentions. For the boys, Sam Wicks, Ian Morrissey, Nicky Walker, Adam Farragher, and Andrew Zaccardi made states. After overcoming all of the obstacles, the boys and girls track teams made SHS proud.

Girls tennis captains Kate O'Connor, Destanee Ringler, and Christina McCourt had to get their team back into shape after losing their first doubles team from last year. With help from their new coaches Barbara and Billy Horne and from SHS Alum '08 Katie Pritchard, these girls made Scituate proud. Beating their Hingham rivals and becoming co-champions of the Patriot League kept up morale and provided many memorable moments for the girls. Senior captains Kate O'Connor and Destanee Ringler, along with junior Caroline Martin and freshman Roisin Sullivan, managed to earn the Patriot League All-Star title, and Christina McCourt won the League Sportsmanship Award. This team gave the best effort in every match, despite their many obstacles like Hingham's bad sportsmanship. They kept positive and remembered their motto, "One point at a time!" The team was still active in the tournament at press time, meeting up with the rival Hingham team in the Division II South Sectional.

This season the girl's lacrosse team holds the best record in Scituate High girl's lacrosse history. Coach Jennifer Smith and assistant coach Kristen Oldenburg really prepared the girls to be successful by holding intense practices and pushing them past their limits. And even after four years the girls still enjoy doing the same warm up routine. Captains Michaela Deary, Kathleen Marshall, and Taryn Sacchitella created great team chemistry by hanging out outside of practice and according to Michaela Deary "That is what helps us bond and keeps us strong as a team on the field."

The girl's team's biggest competitors were Duxbury, Norwell, Notre Dame, and Hingham whom they only lost to by one point. The girls do not lose their motivation though. They have a supportive junior varsity team that cheers them on and also helps with stats and scoreboard. They also have a lot of support from their parents who attend the games. The girls finished there season with a tough loss to Martha's Vineyard in the quarter finals of the state tournament.

Although their record did not display their commitment, this season was more of a rebuilding year for the team. With a loss of important players after graduation last season, the team had to rely on their returning players to pick up the slack. Captains Nick Sharry, Chris Mogan, Kevin Nash, Matt Palubicki, and Pat Johnson succeeded in doing so, with their coaches Mark Puzangara, Dan Chouinard, and Josh Stolp's help. Beating Hanover 14 to 5 was a good example of this team's commitment and talent. The boys on this team gave a huge effort in every game. Go Scituate!

BASEBALL

The 2010 Varsity Baseball Team was young but experienced with 11 players returning from the 2009 squad. Highlights of the year included a three home run / nine RBI game by junior captain David Podurgiel vs. Whitman Hason, senior captain Jake Shillue's two home run game vs. Pembroke and junior captain Jordan Jenkins walkoff home run in the 9th inning vs. Marshfield to put the Team into the State Playoffs again in 2010. Sophomore Matt King lead the squad with a .411 batting average followed closely by David Podurgiel at .400, while Jordan Jenkins led the pitching staff with 6 wins at press time.

The Girls Varsity Softball Team had a fantastic and fun season, and finished with a record of 8-12. You may not think that's such a great record but they crossed their 7-13 plateau, which they have had for the last three seasons and that 8th win was quite an accomplishment. The team was led by Senior Tri Captains Jess Whittier, Jackie Lane, and Jenny O'Brien. Some of the season's highlights include a come from behind victory against North Quincy on senior night, walk off hits for Jackie Lane and Megan Fountaine, and Jessie's throw's down to second base. Most of the memorable times happened at practice and the team dinners. Jess Whittier and Brenda Keys were named to the Patriot League All-Star Team. Great job Lady Sailors!

COLOPHON

The 2010 Chimes yearbook theme was A Perfect Ten. As the yearbook staff thought about themes at the beginning of the school year, they came up with a wide variety of ideas. After narrowing it down to several themes, the senior class voted on their favorite. The class decided to pick A Perfect Ten in conjunction with our graduation year. As a result, many of the pages are filled with a "top ten" list as a way to preserve the memories we have from different sports teams, clubs, activities and trips.

Chimes was printed by Jostens Inc. using Yearbook Avenue Online. Tara & Chris Anderson were the company representatives. There were 190 copies sold for $85 online and $90 via check, with 160 full color pages in each copy. All pages were designed by members of the Design & Writing for Publication course who make up the Chimes Staff including Sonny Billotte, Meg Cuneo, Meghan Jennings, Jackie Lane, Michele Lavanchy, Hannah Lazarovich, Shannon MacKinnon, Jamie Ryan, Julie Sides, Shayna Stephens, and Kendyl Trevena. Sonny Billotte and Alyssa Rothstein designed the cover. Lifetouch Studios of Massachusetts provided all the underclass, faculty, club group photos and many of the sports team photos. We would also like to thank Nik Weikert for permission to use his art on our end page.

Chimes is advised by Publication Advisor Ms. Colleen Gacic and Business Advisor Mr. Greg Ranieri. The Chimes staff would like to say a special thank you to Suzy Park for contributing several sports team photos. We would also like to thank the Farragher family, Katie Sheehan, and Ms. Hallihan for their photos; and Maeve Dawley, Emily Richard, and Anna Talbot for their assistance in wrapping up the yearbook after our senior staffers graduated.

Many people wonder why the name of the SHS yearbook is Chimes. The Scituate Historical Society has provided us with an answer in this year's ad on page 153. We thank all our business, community, and family sponsors for their wisdom and support and we would like to make a special dedication to Andrea and Tim, whose memories will live on in our hearts.

Love, Mom, Dad and Brandon

We are not telling you this to embarrass you; we just want you to know how very proud we are of
you. You have come so far these last four years.
The child who just wanted to have fun has become an adult who wants to accept responsibilities. You have been able to keep your old friends while making new ones. You have graciously endured the loss of classmates and family. You have been a dedicated and trustworthy employee, that even at your young age, they have made you manager. Even with all this going on, you still managed to achieve grades that have earned you an acceptance to the college of your dreams, which will allow you to have the career that means so much to you. You have earned the wonderful life ahead of you.

Love you bunches,
Mom, Tim and Nick

This page is dedicated to my son Cameron Antonio Showell upon his graduation from Scituate High School. It is truly an honor to be your Mother and to have been able to see your compassion, integrity, and pride develop and flourish!

To me, you are like an eagle soaring to higher heights, never looking down, focused, and pressing towards the finish line in everything you do. As you embark on the road leading toward your future, always remember to trust in God, trust yourself and trust that we've never more than a few feet away!

I applaud your hard work, dedication and perseverance even in the face of adversity as you climb the ladder of success called "life".

You're a constant source of pride to our entire family and as a unit, we celebrate and applaud your accomplishment!

With Much Love,

Mom,
Clifton,
Vivian,
Auntie,
Marc,
Uncle Sef, Josef,
Alex and Alix,
And that's just here.....

Congratulations Class of 2010!

Abigail

OUR BEAUTIFUL DAUGHTER.

It's amazing how fast the time goes by, and it seems just like yesterday that you were our little baby girl always letting us know when things didn't go your way. We knew then that you would accomplish anything you put your heart into. We wish you a great and happy journey ahead. And remember to always be who you are and the world will be yours.

*We love you,
Mom & Dad and your loving family.*

Congratulations Pat!
We're proud of you!

Love, Mom, Dad and Will

Congratulations,
Patrick McGowan,
on all your achievements as you move on to college and beyond!
The world awaits!!!
With much love...Mom and Dad

To Melissa Andrade,

Congratulations on your awesome achievements throughout your school years! You excelled in every term and demonstrated great leadership skills not only in academics but also in your cheerleading capabilities both in high school and as a National cheerleader as well as in the National Honor Society. We are all very proud of you and wish you continued success and happiness in your future endeavors.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Jecheima, Tiffany, Aaron & Papa

Jamey,
We are all so proud of you, your hard work and achievement. Always keep your positive attitude, follow your dreams and what is in your heart and happiness will be with you always.

We love you,
Dad, Mom, Dan, Poppy
Thanks to everyone who has touched
Jamey's life with kindness and support.

Congratulations, Melaniell!
We love you and have been proud of you since the day you were born.

a perfect ten

What is it like to be part of creating something that will last a lifetime? As memories of your high school years fade, the significance behind a yearbook grows. It takes a lot of determination, creativity and hard work to make something this important worthwhile.

The Scituate High School Chimes yearbook is created in the Design and Writing for Publication class. This is the second year that this class has existed, a much better alternative than being created outside of school, as done in previous years. Being part of this class is such a great experience; preserving the history of SHS that will be reflected upon now, and in years to come.

This year's class was composed of twelve students, each with different ideas but working together to make a book that flows as one piece. This year's theme, A Perfect Ten, can be seen throughout the entire product as well as showing how hard the staffers work every day to make this book possible. Aside from all the effort put into the book, staffers agree that the process is a lot of fun. Staffers get to choose the pages they want to design and take the pictures for those pages. Being part of the class that designs a lasting book of memories is definitely a worthwhile experience.

WAYS TO SAVE ENERGY

- 1 Turn off the lights when no one's in the room.
- 2 Carry a reusable tote bag when you go shopping.
- 3 Bike or walk instead of driving.
- 4 Get a reusable metal water bottle.
- 5 Unplug and shut down electronic devices when not in use.
- 6 Buy music online instead of purchasing CDs.
- 7 Use rechargeable batteries instead of disposables.
- 8 Replace standard light bulbs with compact fluorescent bulbs.
- 9 In winter, turn down the heat and wear more layers.
- 10 In summer, set your air conditioner thermostat to 72° or higher.
